03/11/2008	77	ORDER: The plaintiff's motion to appoint a master 67 is Denied. The plaintiff's motion 74 that all action in this case be suspended until the appointment of a master is likewise Denied. The plaintiff motion to strike 71 and corrected motion to strike 73 are Denied. The Court's review of the plaintiff's response 75 indicates that the filing is not actually a response to any of the pending dispositive motions, but is instead another motion for a suspension of activity in the action until a master is appointed or until the plaintiff finds counsel to represent him. To this extent, the plaintiffs request for a suspension of activity in this action is Denied for the same reasons as have already been set out in this Order. In light of the possibility that the plaintiff may secure counsel in the immediate future, he is granted an extension until April 10, 2008, to file response to the defendants pending motions to dismiss and for summary judgment (Docket Entry Nos. 28, 30, 42, 46, 47, 53, 55, and 59).
